

Chairman Waxman and Ranking Member Davis issued a proposed Committee report on White House contacts with Jack Abramoff that concludes that Mr. Abramoff had personal contact with President Bush, that high-level White House officials held Mr. Abramoff and his associates in high regard and solicited recommendations from them on policy matters, that Mr. Abramoff and his associates influenced some White House actions, and that Mr. Abramoff and his associates offered White House officials expensive tickets and meals.

Documents and Links

- Memo: Full Committee Business Meeting on Proposed Abramoff Report
- Report: Jack Abramoff's Contacts with White House Officials \(Updated June 11, 2008\)
- Deposition of Ruben Barrales
- Deposition of Jennifer Farley
- Deposition of Tracy Henke
- Deposition of Monica Kladakis
- Interview of Ken Mehlman
- Deposition of Matthew Schlapp
- Deposition of Padgett Wilson
- Greenberg Traurig Documents
- White House Documents
- State Department Documents
- White House Photos
- Chairman Waxman's Statement at June 11, 2008 Business Meeting